

HON'BLE JUDGES LIBRARY, RAJASTHAN HIGH COURT, JODHPUR

Overview of library

After the inauguration of Rajasthan High Court on 29th August, 1949, the Hon'ble Judges Library, Rajasthan High Court, Jodhpur came into existence. The High Court Judges Library caters the needs of the Hon'ble Judges and Legal Fraternity. The Judges Library is a grid of Libraries. The Judges Library has one centralized air-conditioned big hall and 6 rooms for keeping the collection.

The Judges Library has a wide collection of Law Journals, Commentaries, Legal Books, General Books, Foreign Journal, Law Dictionaries, General Dictionaries, Medical Dictionaries, Bibliography, Encyclopedia, Reference Books, Law Commission Reports, India Gazette, Rajasthan Gazette, Government Publications, Digest of Law Journals, Central & State Acts/ Rules, State Service Rule, State Codes, Manuals of Central & State Enactments, Legal Database/ Online Resources & in house activities. Newspaper clipping. In addition to Central Library, it also maintains all 15 Court Rooms Libraries and Residential Libraries at the residence offices of all the sitting Judges. It is managed by a team of skilled staff to fulfill the information needed by the Hon'ble Judges and Officers of the Court by offering a wide range of services through legal resources and subscribed on-line legal Journals. It subscribes about 91 Indian journals including 1 Foreign Journal and 4 online database.

The Library has strength of 18 staff including a Senior Librarian, Librarian, Assistant Librarian, Cataloger cum Classifier, Reference assistant, Library restorer and supporting staff. Library Restorers are also deputed in Courts during Court Proceedings to provide the cited books and other materials to Hon'ble Judges at the time of hearing in the Courts. The Judges Library works under the guidance of the Library Committee. The Library Committee, consists of four Hon'ble Judges. It has been constituted by the Hon'ble Chief Justice for supervision & consideration of the matters viz. selection & purchase of new books, journals, payment of bills and all other matters related to the Library .

WORKING DAYS : Library opens for all the working days.

WORKING HOURS: 10:00 AM TO 5.00 PM.

07:30 AM TO 1:00 PM (in summer)