HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE FOR
RAJASTHAN, JODHPUR

NOTIFICATION

JODHPUR, DECEMBER 5, 2002.

No. 02/ S.R.O./ 2002 In exercise of the powers conferred by Article 229 (2) of the Constitution of India, the Chief Justice of THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE FOR RAJASTHAN hereby makes the following Rules regulating the recruitment and other conditions of service of the persons serving on the establishment of the Rajasthan High Court, namely :—

1. SHORT TITLE AND COMMENCEMENT.— (i) These Rules may be called as "The Rajasthan High Court Staff Service Rules, 2002".

(ii) They shall come into force at once.

2. DEFINITIONS.—In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires:

(i) "Appointing Authority" means Chief Justice or a Judge or a Committee of Judges or any other Officer who may be especially empowered by the Chief Justice to exercise the powers and perform the functions of the Appointing Authority.

(ii) "Court" means the High Court of Judicature for Rajasthan.

(iii) "Judge" means a Judge of this Court.

(iv) "Government and State" means-respectively, the Government of Rajasthan and the State of Rajasthan.

(v) "Member of Service" means a person appointed in a substantive capacity to a post in the Service under the provisions of these Rules or under the Rules or orders superseded by these Rules and includes a person who is placed on probation.

(vi) "Service" means the Rajasthan High Court Staff Service.

(vii) "Schedule-I¹ " means Schedule-I appended to these Rules.

(viii) "Substantive appointment" means an appointment made under the provisions of these Rules to a substantive vacancy after due selection by any of the methods of recruitment prescribed under these Rules and includes an appointment on probation or as a probationary followed by confirmation on the completion of probationary period;

1. For the existing word "Schedule" wherever appears in the existing Rules be subs. by "Schedule-I". vide Notification No. 02/S.R.O./2004 dt. 24 July, 2004 pub. in Raj. Gaz. Pt. 1(B) dt. 29 July, 2004.

Note:— Due selection by any methods of recruitment prescribed under these Rules will include recruitment either on initial constitution of Service or in accordance with the Rules or orders superseded by these Rules, except urgent temporary appointment.

(ix) "Experience" wherever prescribed in these Rules as a condition for promotion within service from one category to another or to senior posts, in the case of a person holding lower posts eligible for promotion to higher post shall include the period for which the person has continuously worked on such lower posts after substantive appointment in accordance with these Rules or in accordance with the Rules or orders superseded by these Rules;

Note:— Absence during service e.g. training, leave and deputation etc. which are treated as "duty" under the Rajasthan Service Rules, 1951 shall also be counted as service for commuting experience required for promotion.

(x) "Year" means Financial Year.

3. STRENGTH OF STAFF.— The staff attached to the Court shall consist of the posts specified in the second column of Schedule-I appended to these Rules;

The strength of the posts of each type shall be as specified in the third column of Schedule-I appended to these Rules :

PROVIDED that Chief Justice may from time to time leave unfilled or held in abeyance or abolish or allow to lapse any vacant post, permanent or temporary without thereby entitling a person to any claim, or may after obtaining the sanction of the Governor of State create any post, permanent or temporary as may be found necessary.

4. INITIAL CONSTITUTION OF SERVICE.— The service shall consist of:-

- (a) All persons holding substantively the post specified in the Schedule-I ; and
- (b) All persons recruited to the service before the commencement of these Rules; and
- (c) All persons recruited to the post in accordance with the provisions of these Rules or Rules superseded by these Rules.

5. METHOD OF RECRUITMENT.— (1) Recruitment to a post or category of posts specified in the second column of Schedule-I shall be made by one or more of the following methods, namely :-

- (a) by direct recruitment, or
- (b) by promotion, or
- (c) by transfer from subordinate courts or offices of the Government;

Provided that in case of direct recruitment, the Chief Justice may, if deemed appropriate, for the purpose of short listing of the candidates, provide for screening test².

Provided further³ that the Chief Justice or subject to any general or special order of the Chief Justice, the Registrar General may order transfer of any member of the Ministerial or Class IV staff serving on the establishment of the Court to any Subordinate Court and vice-versa on such terms and conditions as may be deemed proper.

(d) all persons who are working on any post in ad hoc/officiating/temporary basis on the date of commencement of these Rules shall be screened by a Committee constituted by the Chief Justice for adjudging their suitability to the post,

Provided they possess the qualification prescribed in these Rules or Rules superseded by these Rules either for direct recruitment or promotion.

(e) [Deleted]⁴

(f) The recruitment, appointment and posting on “E-Courts Posts”, for High Court as well as for Subordinate Courts, shall be made by the High Court.”⁵

(g) A sitting Judge of the Court may nominate one person for appointment as Class IV employee enabling him/her to retain one personal staff member, who would be attached to his/her residence.

Such nominated person shall be considered for appointment as Class IV employee subject to the condition that he possesses educational and other qualifications required for the post as prescribed in the Rules. However, if required, “relaxation may be granted in respect of eligibility conditions in the rules on case to case basis.”⁶

Provided that such nomination for appointment shall be made only once by the Hon’ble Judge during his/her entire tenure. If such nomination has been made prior to this amendment and implemented, no fresh nomination shall be made.⁷

“Provided further that if any Class IV employee appointed under this provision is unable to continue on account of any reason including resignation/ termination/ removal/ death, then concerned Hon’ble Judge may make fresh nomination.”⁸

(2) The Chief Justice may, from time to time, by general or special order :-

(a) specify the method by which recruitment to a post or category of posts shall be made.

(b) determine the proportion of vacancies to be filled in by each method in case of recruitment by more than one method, and

(c) specify the manner in which such recruitment shall be made.

6. DETERMINATION OF VACANCIES.— (1) (a) Subject to the provisions of these Rules, the Appointing Authority shall determine on 1st April every year, the actual number of vacancies occurring during the financial year.

(b) Where a post is to be filled in by a single method as prescribed in the rules or Schedule- I, the vacancies so determined shall be filled in by that method.

(c) Where a post is to be filled in by more than one method as prescribed in the Rules or Schedule-I, the apportionment of vacancies, determined under clause (a) above, to each such method shall be done maintaining the prescribed proportion for the overall number of posts already filled in. If any fraction of vacancies is left over, after apportionment of the vacancies in the manner prescribed above, the same shall be apportioned to the quota of various methods prescribed in a continuous cyclic order giving precedence to the promotion quota.

“Provided that while selecting the candidates for the post in direct recruitment, so advertised, the appointing authority may, on occurrence of additional vacancies, not exceeding 50% of the advertised vacancies, also select suitable persons to meet such additional requirement.”⁹

(2) The Appointing Authority shall also determine the vacancies of earlier years, yearwise which were required to be filled in by promotion, if such vacancies were not determined and filled earlier in the year in which they were required to be filled in.

7. QUALIFICATION FOR APPOINTMENT.— The qualifications required for appointment to the various categories of posts in the Service by direct recruitment or promotion or transfer shall be such as the Chief Justice may, from time to time, by general or special order, specify.

PROBATION.— (1) All persons appointed to the post in the service by direct recruitment against a substantive vacancy shall be placed on probation for a period of two years and those appointed to the post in service by promotion/ transfer against the substantive vacancy shall be placed on probation for a period of one year.

Provided that-

- (i) such of them as have, previous to their appointment by promotion/transfer or by direct recruitment against a substantive vacancy, officiated temporarily on the post which is followed by regular selection may be permitted by the Appointing Authority to count such officiating or temporary service towards the period of probation. This shall, however, not amount to involve supersession of any senior person or disturb the order of their preference in respective quota or reservation in recruitment.
- (ii) Any period after such appointment during which a person has been on deputation on a corresponding or higher post shall count towards the period of probation.

(2) During the period of probation specified in sub-rule (1) each probationer may be required to pass such examination and to undergo such training if any as the Chief Justice from time to time, specify.

Explanation :— In case of a person who dies or is due to retire on attaining the age of superannuation, the period of probation shall be reduced so as to end one day earlier on the date immediately preceding the date of his death or retirement from Service. The condition of passing the examination in the rule regarding confirmation shall be deemed to have been waived in case of death or retirement.

(3) If it appears to the Chief Justice, at any time, during or at the end of the period of probation that a member of the service has not made sufficient use of his opportunities or that he has failed to give satisfaction the Appointing Authority may revert him to the post held substantively by him immediately preceding his appointment, provided he holds a lien thereon or in other cases may discharge or terminate him from Service:

Provided that the Appointing Authority may, if it so thinks fit in any case or class of cases extend the period of probation of any member of Service by a specified period not exceeding two years in case of person appointed to a post in the Service by direct recruitment and one year in the case of person appointed by promotion/ transfer to such post.

Provided further that the Appointing Authority may, if it so thinks fit in the case of persons belonging to the Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, extend the period of probation by a period not exceeding one year at a time and a total extension not exceeding three years.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the sub-rule (3) above during the period of probation, if a probationer is placed under suspension, or disciplinary proceedings are contemplated or started against him, the period of his probation may be extended till such period, the Chief Justice thinks fit in the circumstances.

(5) A probationer reverted or discharged from Service during or at the end of the period of probation under sub-rule (2) shall not be entitled to any compensation.

(6) Pay during probation.— The initial pay of a person appointed by direct recruitment to a post in the Service shall be the minimum of the Scale of pay of the post :

Provided that the pay of a person already serving in connection with the affairs of the State, Court or Subordinate Courts shall be fixed in accordance with the provisions of the Rajasthan Service Rules, 1951.

(7) Increment during probation.— A probationer shall draw increment, in the scale of pay admissible to him in accordance with the provisions of the Rajasthan Service Rules, 1951.

18. CONFIRMATION.— A probationer shall be confirmed in his appointment at the end of his period of probation, if—

- (a) he has passed the examination and undergone the training prescribed under rule 16 (2), if any, completely; and
- (b) the Appointing Authority is satisfied that his integrity is unquestionable and that he is otherwise fit for confirmation.

19. NATURE OF APPOINTMENT.— A Person appointed to a post in one category may be transferred to a post of equal status/grade in any category at the discretion of the Chief Justice.

20. SENIORITY.— Seniority in service shall be determined from the date of substantive appointment on the post.

Explanation :— (1) Seniority in service of the member of staff of the Subordinate Court transferred to the Court otherwise than on his own request under proviso to sub-rule (1) of Rule 5 of these Rules shall be determined from the date of substantive appointment on the corresponding post where from he is transferred.

Explanation :— (2) [Deleted]⁴² :

Provided that—

- (i) That the seniority inter se of persons appointed to a post by direct recruitment on the basis of one and the same selection, except those who do not join the service when post is offered to them within a period as specified by the Appointing
