Establishment of Museum at Rajasthan High Court

INTRODUCTION

The establishment of Museum at Rajasthan High Court, Jodhpur represents a significant initiative aimed at enriching visitor experiences by offering immersive and educational insights into Rajasthan's esteemed judicial heritage. This project underscores the development of interactive and multimedia exhibits designed to engage visitors of all backgrounds in a compelling journey through the history and evolution of the judicial system.

This comprehensive document outlines the proposed immersive experiences for the Rajasthan High Court Museum, strategically organized into distinct zones within the museum space to optimize visitor flow and ensure a cohesive narrative throughout the museum visit.

OBJECTIVES

3D/2D Object/Item.

- Rare/ historical items (original/facsimile) related to the Law & Justice of the land like documents, painting, furniture, costumes, statue/ sculpture, coin, instruments, equipment etc.
- Belonging of Eminent Jurists and barristers having rarity/ historicity in relation to the Law & Justice of Rajasthan and Hon'ble the High Court.
- Other items & ICT features like 3D Walkthrough Multimedia Display.

SITE

The proposed museum is located on front-left side of the Ceremonial Gate of High Court of Rajasthan towards the North-East direction. Just an arrangement to be made to give easy/flawless entrance to the visitors from the main gate of the premises.

BUILDING & SPACE

The designated museum space is an integral part of the newly constructed main building of the Hon'ble Rajasthan High Court, which boasts an impressive architectural design. The space allocated for the museum have square layout, a large central shaft, three central pillars, and six expansive windows.

To convert this space into a museum, an appropriate blueprint is needed to ensure that the display of the forthcoming museum maintains the sanctity and ambience of the building.

- Structural Features: The central shaft and pillars could pose challenges for display arrangements but also offer unique opportunities for creative exhibition design. The large windows provide natural lighting, which can be both an asset and a challenge, depending on the type of artifacts to be displayed. Proper light control measures, such as UV-filtering films or blinds, may be necessary to protect sensitive exhibits.
- Design Considerations: To convert this space into a functional and aesthetically pleasing museum, a meticulously crafted blueprint is essential. This blueprint should address spatial organization, visitor flow, exhibit placement, and environmental controls to preserve the integrity of the artifacts. It should also incorporate elements that reflect the sanctity and historical significance of the High Court.

COLLECTION

The existing collection of artifacts, objects, and items to be displayed in the proposed museum shall also includes:

- Portraits of the Hon'ble Chief Justices and Judges
- Pictures and photographs
- Case files and judgments
- Judicial records
- Books
- Farmans
- Models of High Court buildings (both old and new)
- Court belongings (e.g., judges' chairs, chapras, badges, handcuffs, seals, etc.) of the High Court of Rajasthan
- Reprographic productions of books and pages from the Constitution of India

Some of the items, particularly paintings, photographs, and documents, are infested with termites or fungus and require immediate conservation and preservation.

To enrich the museum's collection, additional artifacts, objects, and items related to the law and justice of the land and the Hon'ble High Court from various sources to depict diverse themes within the museum.

- (c) not indulge in any collusion, Bid rigging or anti-competitive behavior to impair the transparency, fairness and progress of the procurement process;
- (d) not misuse any Information shared between the procuring Entity and the Bidders with an intent to gain unfair advantage in the procurement process;
- (e) not indulge in any coercion including impairing or harming or threatening to do the same, directly or indirectly, to any party or to its property to influence the procurement process;
- (f) not obstruct any investigation or audit of a procurement process;
- (g) disclose conflict of interest, if any; and
- (h) disclose any previous transgressions with any Entity in India or any other country during the last three years or any debarment by any other procuring entity.

Conflict of Interest :-

The Bidder participating in a bidding process must not have a Conflict of Interest. A Conflict of Interest is considered to be a situation in which a party has interests that could improperly influence that party's performance of official duties or responsibilities, contractual obligations, or compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

A bidder may be considered to be in Conflict of interest with one or more parties in an bidding process if, including but not limited to;

- (a) have controlling partners/shareholders in common; or
- (b) receive or have received any direct or indirect subsidy from any of them; or
- (c) have the same legal representative for purposes of the Bid; or
- (d) have a relationship with each other, directly or through common third parties, that puts them in a position to have access to information about or influence on the Bid of another Bidder, or influence the decisions of the Procuring Entity regarding the bidding process; or
- (e) the bidder participates in more than one Bid in abiding process. Participation by a Bidder in more than one Bid will result in the disqualification of all Bids in which the Bidder is involved. However, this does not limit the inclusion of the same subcontractor, not otherwise participating as a Bidder, in more than one Bid; or
- (f) the Bidder or any of its affiliates participated as a consultant in the preparation of the design or technical specifications of the Goods, Works or Services that are the subject of the Bid; or
- (g) Bidder or any of its affiliates has been hired (or is proposed to be hired) by the procuring Entity as engineer-in-charge/consultant for the contract.

Additional Conditions of Contract

1. Correction of arithmetic errors.-

Provided that Financial Bid is substantially responsive, the Procuring Entity will correct arithmetical errors during evaluation of Financial Bids on the following basis, namely: -

- (a) if there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail and the total price shall be corrected, unless in the opinion of the Procuring Entity there is an obvious misplacement of the decimal point in the unit price, in which case the total price as quoted shall govern and the unit price shall be corrected;
- (b) if there is an error in a total corresponding to the addition or subtraction of subtotals, the subtotals shall prevail and the total shall be corrected; and
- (c) if there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words shall prevail, unless the amount expressed in words is related to an arithmetic error, in which case the amount in figures shall prevail subject to (a) and (b) above.

If the Bidder that submitted the lowest evaluated Bid does not accept the correction of errors, its Bid shall be disqualified and its Bid Security shall be forfeited or its Bid Securing Declaration shall be executed.

2. Procuring Entity's Right to vary Quantities.-

- (a) At the time of award of contract, the quantity of Goods, works or service originally specified in the Bidding Document may be increased or decreased by a specified percentage, but such increase or decrease shall not exceed twenty percent, of the quantity specified in the Bidding Document. It shall be without any change in the unit prices or other terms and conditions of the Bid and the conditions of contract.
- (b) If the procuring Entity does not procure any subject matter of procurement or procures less than the quantity specified in the Bidding Document due to change in circumstances, the Bidder shall not be entitled for any claim or compensation except otherwise provided in the Conditions of Contract.
- (c) In case of procurement of Goods or services, additional quantity may be procured by placing a repeat order on the rates and conditions of the original order. However, the additional quantity shall not more than 50% of the value of Goods of the original contract. If the suppliers fails to do so, the Procuring Entity shall be free to arrange for the balance supply by limited bidding or otherwise and the extra cost incurred shall be recovered from the Supplier.

3. Dividing quantities among more than one bidder at the time of award.-

As a general rule all the quantities of the subject matter of procurement shall be procured from the bidder, whose Bid is accepted. However, when it is considered that the quantity of the subject matter of procurement to be procured is very large and it may not be in the capacity of the Bidder, whose Bid is accepted, to deliver the entire quantity or when it is considered that the subject matter of procurement to be procured is of critical and vital nature, then in such cases, the quantity may be divided between the Bidders, whose Bid is accepted and the second lowest Bidder or even more bidders in that order, in a fair, transparent and equitable manner at the rates of the Bidder, whose Bid is accepted.
